CIVIL ACTION

No. 07-3852

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Fullam, Sr. J.

October 11, 2007

Petitioner, Gabriel Jennings, is a federal prisoner, confined at the United States Penitentiary - Canaan in Waymart, Pennsylvania. Mr. Jennings is serving a thirty-one year sentence. In 1992, Mr. Jennings filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in Civil Action No. 92-6093. That petition was considered on the merits and denied.

On September 17, 2007, petitioner filed a “Motion for Habeas Corpus Relief” Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241. In this document, petitioner argues that the Supreme Court’s holding in Jones v. United States 529 U.S. 848 (2000) voids his conviction. Mr. Jennings argues that under the holding in Jones, the acts for which he was convicted do not qualify as a federal crime.

Whether considered under § 2241 or § 2255, the petition must be dismissed. Because the petitioner seeks to have his sentence voided, and therefore to be released from custody, the petition cannot be brought under § 2241. 28 U.S.C. § 2241 applies solely to the execution of a sentence, and cannot be applied to the imposition of a sentence as the petitioner requests.

Petitioner's claim would be appropriate under U.S.C. 28 § 2255, had he not already filed such a claim in the past. Because the petitioner has already brought one petition under § 2255 which was considered and denied on the merits, he cannot bring this "second or successive" petition without first obtaining permission from the Court of Appeals.

An Order follows.
